Tommy "Tom Boy" Ashley, age 62, of St. Augustine, passed away on November 4, 2013 at the Earl B. Hadlow Center for Caring, surrounded by his family. Born in Edison, Georgia, Tommy moved to the St. Augustine area as a young child, graduating from St. Augustine High School with the Class of 1969. He was a talented mechanic and carpenter, and drove dump trucks for a while, working in the land clearing business. For many years, Tommy enjoyed working as a carpenter building boats for St. Augustine Trawler. His love for animals led him to work many more years for the St. Augustine Humane Society. Above all, he was a devoted friend to many, and he will be deeply missed. He is survived by a son, Tom Ashley, Jr., and a daughter, Jill Ashley; sisters, Shirley Ashley Jobson of St. Augustine, and Mari Ashely Hall, Lynn Ashley Creamer, and her husband, Tim, and Jane Ashley Davis, all of Jacksonville; and a brother, Jerry Ashley, also of Jacksonville. A funeral service will be held at 11:00 a.m. on Saturday, November 9, 2013 at St. Johns Family Funeral Home, with Rev. Andrew Hale officiating. Interment will follow at Evergreen Cemetery. A visitation will take place from 6 to 8 p.m. on Friday, Nov. 8, at St. Johns Family Funeral Home. St. Johns Family Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.
