

Wilfred F Omosigho

August 23, 1953 - August 15, 2025

With heavy hearts, we announce the passing of Wilfred Ehigie Omosigho Otote, our beloved father, who was known to many as "Freddy the African." Surrounded by family as he left this world, but his spirit remains-a true testament to a life lived with passion and joy. He was a creator, an artist who saw beauty in every corner of the world, and a man whose laughter was a melody to those who loved him.. Born in Benin City of Edo State, Nigeria, Freddy brought his vibrant spirit to Florida over 50 years ago, where he became a cherished figure in the city of St. Augustine. A gifted painter and artist for more than four decades, Freddy's work graces homes, businesses, and historic buildings throughout the city. His brushstrokes told stories, and his presence brought joy to everyone he met-from neighbors and shopkeepers to tourists and lifelong friends. Freddy was a beloved character, known for his humor and sage advice. He had a way of making everyone feel like the most important person in the room and was truly the life of any party he stepped into. He was diligent about staying in touch, regularly calling friends and family just to see how they were doing. His warmth and connection also bridged oceans, as he worked hard to maintain close ties with his family abroad, ensuring they always felt connected and cared for. Freddy never forgot his roots and held his home and family in his heart with immense pride. He is survived by his three devoted daughters, I'sha Omosigho, Uyigue Omosigho, and Tiya Omosigho. His six beloved grandchildren, Martin Omosigho Cunningham, Robyn Perry, Aaliyah Omosigho, Malaya Martin, Zariah Martin and Niomi Omosigho Jackson and one precious great-grandchild Zenobia Omosigho all residing in Columbus, Ohio. Freddy also leaves behind one surviving sister Ezebuwa Omosigho in Edo, Nigeria, along with a vast extended family of nieces, nephews, cousins, uncles, and aunties across the globe who will forever cherish his memory. Forever in our hearts, Freddy. Your colors will never fade.
