

Wilson M. "Bill" Bane

April 20, 1927 - February 13, 2019

Wilson M (Bill) Bane, of St Augustine, FL 91, passed away peacefully at home February 13, 2019. Born April 20, 1927 to Owen and Helen Bane in St Joseph, MO. He moved as a child to Miami, FL and Milwaukee, WI. In 1944 at the age of 17, he joined the Navy and enjoyed a remarkable career. As part of the Underwater Demolition Team (UDT2 Plankowner and UDT21) he served during World War II. In 1962, President Kennedy commissioned men, selected from the UDT to form SEAL Teams 1 and 2. Bill and his teammates are the unsung heroes of those turbulent years and held in high esteem. He completed his Navy career in 1963 as an instructor at the newly formed Swimmers School in Key West FL, then continued to serve his country until 1969 with the CIA.

His love for the water continued throughout the rest of his life, from owning the Bayside Boatel in Ocean City, MD, to building a home on Big Pine Key where he loved to dive and spearfish. It was here that he met the love of his life Sue in 1994. They moved over the years to Wachapreague, VA and St Augustine, FL.

Bill was a true artist and skilled craftsman with every kind of tool that could fashion wood or metal. He was a master ship model builder and a proficient carver. His works of art now reside in private collections and museums throughout the US.

He was predeceased in death by his parents, brother John Bane, and beloved son Wilson (Chip) Bane. He is survived by his wife Susan along with his brother Owen G. Bane (Joan), granddaughter Corion Bane, stepchildren Christie and husband Shane Walton, Sean Noel, step grandchildren Shane, Jamie, Tiffany, and Jake Walton, Savanna and Justin Noel. He will be sadly missed by his great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews and many friends, especially his "adopted" daughter, Virginia Jenkins and his close friend Keith McComas.

There will be a celebration of his life announced at a later date.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made in his name to either:
