“ So sorry to hear Bonnie’s passing. She was always so kind to our family and we loved her spunk. She made us an afghan for our wedding gift almost 40 years ago and we still use it everyday. I am actually cuddled up in it right now as I write this. I always feel like I am getting a hug from her every time I use it. She will be missed very much!

“ So many fond and loving memories of Vonnie, and Joe too! One I always treasure...Ray and I went to the lake house at Lobdell Lake to see the new baby...Denise. Ray picked her up and Vonnie burst into tears! She was overwhelmed at how tiny Denise was in Ray's big hand. How she loved her baby girl!

Our love thoughts and prayers are with all of you, especially Denise and Diane. I firmly believe God sends us angels, it took a while, but Vonnie finally earned her wings with all our love of family and so many others. She is in God's loving arms and reunited with her beloved mom and dad...Nora and Dar. So many memories.

“ So many fond memories of this special woman! My earliest is her love for soap operas and mopping her eyes while living the drama. Vonnie, as I knew her then, will be missed. Denise and Diane, I am sorry for your loss, but I guarantee Heaven's gates are shining brightly as her beloved ones are there to greet her. Please let me know when you gather in Michigan. Much love.....
